Emma Bridgewater unique Sandringham china mug goes on sale

Sandringham Estate has partnered with iconic British pottery brand Emma Bridgewater to create a unique limited-edition china mug.

Produced by Emma Bridgewater and designed by Tim Rice in his signature style, the mug features illustrations of iconic spots on the Sandringham Estate such as Alexandra's Nest in the Gardens, Sandringham House and St Mary Magdalene Church in the Royal Parkland.

Pottery-maker Emma Bridgewater has been championing English-made earthenware since the brand's inception in 1985.

Still produced in Stoke-On-Trent, Emma Bridgewater pottery and Tim Rice designs continue to inspire colourful kitchens and homeware everywhere.

The collaborative mug (£29.99) is available from the Sandringham Courtyard Shop on the Sandringham Estate, open daily 10am – 5pm.

Notes to Editors

The mug is unavailable to be purchased directly via Emma Bridgewater Pottery, it is only available at The Sandringham Shop.

Sandringham Estate is the much-loved country retreat of Her Majesty The Queen and has been the private home to four generations of British Monarchs since 1862.

Sandringham Royal Parkland spans nearly 243 hectares and is open daily throughout the year for walking and cycling, is dog friendly and includes a woodland children's play area. St Mary Magdalene Church, visited by the Royal Family particularly at Christmas, is also located in the Royal Parkland and open to visitors in line with Sandringham House opening times.

Sandringham House and Gardens can be visited via pre-booked tickets from the website from March – October (closed Fridays). www.sandringhamestate.co.uk

Facilities at Sandringham Courtyard include The Sandringham Shop, Sandringham Restaurant serving Afternoon Tea, and take away refreshment facilities all open daily throughout the year.
